Salem Press Announces the Newest Addition to the Popular Defining Documents series: Political Campaigns, Candidates & Debates (1787-2017)

Defining Documents in American History: Political Campaigns, Candidates & Debates offers in-depth analysis of sixty-four speeches, letters, inaugural addresses, pamphlets, and debates. The set begins just as a new nation has been declared, in 1787, and continues through the 2017 election of the nation's first openly transgender official.

These documents provide a compelling view of what makes America's political system so engaging and enduring: discussion, debate, and free, open elections leading to the order transfer of power. The documents prove that the system is not always polite, but it is always vibrant, as well as vital to a strong democratic government. The material is organized under seven historical groupings:

- The First and Second Party Systems, 1787-1854, beginning with James Madison's Federalist Papers and George Washington's inaugural address and concluding with the Kansas-Nebraska Act;
- The Third Party System, 1854-96 features Lincoln's "House Divided" speech, hotly contested presidential campaigns such as Greeley versus Grant, and William Jennings Bryan's fiery "Cross of Gold" speech;
- The Fourth Party System, 1896-1932 includes Teddy Roosevelt's Progressive Party platform, Woodrow Wilson's second inaugural speech, and the establishment of the country's national anthem;
- The Fifth Party System, 1932-60 begins with a fireside chat from Franklin Delano Roosevelt and includes the ratification of the twenty-second amendment, and the famous Truman versus Dewey presidential campaign.
- The Sixth Party System, Part I, 1960-74 delves into the Kennedy-era and LBJ's Great Society, as well as the Vietnam War and the election of Richard Nixon.
- The Sixth Party System, Part II, 1974-2016 begins with Gerald Ford's remarks on assuming the presidency and on the U.S. bicentennial celebration, the decision to determine the outcome of the Bush/Gore presidential campaign, and the landmark case regarding campaign contributions in Citizen's United v. Federal Election Commission.
- The Seventh Party System, 2016- considers the current political climate, from Hilary Clinton's acceptance speech at the 2016 Democratic convention, "fake news" stories such as the erroneous report that Pope Francis supported Donald Trump's bid to become president, and another crucial court case, this time related to voting districts, in Cooper v. Harris

Each document is supported by a critical essay, written by historians and teachers, that includes a Summary Overview, Defining Moment, Author Biography, Document Analysis, and Essential Themes.
