

Contents

---

About This Volume, John Rodden vii

Career, Life, and Influence

On George Orwell, John Rodden	3
How Orwell Became “a Famous Author,” John Rodden	11
Biography of George Orwell, John P. Rossi	24
Homage to My “Intellectual Big Brother,” John Rodden	31

Critical Contexts

The Historical Background of Orwell’s Work, James Seaton	43
Comparison and Contrast: Orwell, Hemingway, and the Spanish Civil War, William E. Cain	59
Orwell and Reader-Response Theory, William E. Cain	79
George Orwell’s Critical Reception, Loraine Saunders	95

Critical Readings

Orwell’s Documentaries of the 1930s, Loraine Saunders	117
Orwell the Essayist and Journalist, James Seaton	134
Animal Farm : Beast Fable, Allegory, Satire, John P. Rossi	151
Of Communism, Censorship, Satire, and “Little Comrades”: Animal Farm , Beijing, and the Problem of Genre, John Rodden	166
Nightmares of History: Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty-Four , Eugene Goodheart	177
Literary and Scientific Perspectives on Nineteen Eighty-Four , Peter Davison	193
Ideology Versus Psychology in Nineteen Eighty-Four : Dystopia Meets Modernism, Gorman Beauchamp	209
George Orwell’s Nineteen Eighty-Four in the Twenty-First Century, Peter Stansky	226
Veiled Autobiography: George Orwell, Winston Smith, and Nineteen Eighty-Four , Henk Vynckier	240
The Intellectual as Critic and Conscience: George Orwell and Albert Camus, John Rodden	258
George Orwell and Jacintha Buddicom: A Memoir, Dione Venables	269