

Careers in Education & Training

“This book, comprised of 24 alphabetically arranged chapters, is a great source for high school or undergraduate students who want to learn more about different jobs in education and training. Each chapter is devoted to a particular job, and each chapter provides an overview and information on such things as occupational specialties, work environment, education, training and advancement, earnings and advancement, employment and outlook, and selected schools. Detailed descriptions of statistics, current trends, working environments, and other important topics are also included. These provide valuable insights about which schools to consider for readers who are interested in the formal education that is required for a job and what organizations can provide information about the latest current trends and changes in the field.

The most interesting book features will definitely attract the attention of the reading audience. For example, each chapter has Fun Facts, Famous Firsts, and a Conversation With. The last feature is an interview with a person who performs the selected job. The interviewee discusses interesting aspects of the profession by sharing specific details and concerns. The interviewee also advises readers on what to do to become a professional or on how they can gain knowledge and work experience to receive a certain job... [T]he book directly targets its reading audience and is easy to read and understand. The visual graphics of the book are precise, and at the same time offer different visual objects like diagrams or information boxes that catch a reader’s attention. One of the most helpful tables is the table about the highest employment level and annual wage because not many print or online resources provide such information. This book is recommended for high school, public, and college libraries.”

—ARBA

Reviews

ISBN: 978-1-68217-150-9
Pub. Date: December 2016
List Price: $125

SALEM PRESS

2 University Plaza, Suite 310, Hackensack, NJ 07601
(800) 221-1592 FAX (201) 968-0511
www.salempress.com csr@salempress.com