

Careers Overseas

Careers Overseas offers practical advice to those interested in working internationally in the medical field, in the Peace Corps, as English teachers, or in other occupations. Chapters include career snapshots, overviews, work environments, profiles, occupation interests, duties and responsibilities, transferable skills and abilities, education, training and advancement, earnings, employment outlooks, related occupations, photographs, and contact information. The text also explores challenges, as well as education and technical requirements for entry-level positions and career advancement. For example, the publisher's note and introduction orients readers and then proceeds to explore challenges and opportunities for those pursuing overseas careers. Content enhancements include fun facts, famous firsts, shadow boxes, bullet formats, and reader friendly fonts. There are also "Conversation With" features, which present interviews with professionals. Recommended."
