

Critical Insights: Great Expectations

Table of Contents

GREAT EXPECTATIONS, by Charles Dickens

- About This Volume, by Eugene Goodheart

The Book and Author

- On Great Expectations, by Eugene Goodheart
- Biography of Charles Dickens, by Charles E. May
- The Paris Review Perspective, by Elizabeth Gumpert

Critical Contexts

- Great Expectations in Context, by Gurdip Panesar
- The Critical Reception of Great Expectations, by Shanyn Fiske
- From Sham to "Gentle Christian Man" in Great Expectations, by Mary Ann Tobin

Critical Readings

- Stories Present and Absent in Great Expectations, by Eiichi Hara
- Repetition, Repression, and Return: Great Expectations and the Study of Plot, by Peter Brooks
- Realism as Self-Forgetfulness: Gender, Ethics, and Great Expectations, by Caroline Levine
- From Magwitch to Miss Havisham: Narrative Interaction and Mythic Structure in Charles Dickens's Great Expectations, by Calum Kerr
- A Second Level of Symbolism in Great Expectations, by Elizabeth MacAndrew
- Christian Allusion, Comedic Structure, and the Metaphor of Baptism in Great Expectations, by John Cunningham
- Memory and Confession in Great Expectations, by Samuel Sipe
- Manual Conduct in Great Expectations, by William A. Cohen
- Gender and Class in Dickens: Making Connections, by Peter Scheckner

Resources

- Chronology of Charles Dickens's Life
- Works by Charles Dickens
- Bibliography
- About the Editor
- About The Paris Review
- Contributors
- Acknowledgments
- Index