

Critical Insights: Ernest Hemingway

Table of Contents

ERNEST HEMINGWAY

- About This Volume, by Eugene Goodheart

Career, Life, and Influence

- On Ernest Hemingway, by Eugene Goodheart
- Biography of Ernest Hemingway, by R. Baird Shuman
- The Paris Review Perspective, by Petrina Crockford

Critical Contexts

- Ernest Hemingway: A Cultural and Historical Context, by Jennifer Banach Palladino
- In His Time (and Later): Ernest Hemingway's Critical Reputation, by Robert C. Evans
- Toward a Definition of the Hemingwayesque and the Faulknerian, by Matthew Bolton

Critical Readings

- The First Forty-five Stories, by Carlos Baker
- The Personal Stories: Paris and Provence, 1926-1927, by Hilary K. Justice
- Recurrence in Hemingway and Cézanne, by Ron Berman
- The Scapegoat, the Bankrupt, and the Bullfighter: Shadows of a Lost Man in The Sun Also Rises, by Neil Heims
- "Sign the Wire with Love": The Morality of Surplus in The Sun Also Rises, by George Cheatham
- Frederic Henry's Escape and the Pose of Passivity, by Scott Donaldson
- Three Wounded Warriors, by Mark Spilka
- Invalid Masculinity: Silence, Hospitals, and Anesthesia in A Farewell to Arms, by Diane Price Herndl
- "Everything Completely Knit Up": Seeing For Whom the Bell Tolls Whole, by A. Robert Lee
- Cultural Imperialism, Afro-Cuban Religion, and Santiago's Failure in Hemingway's The Old Man and the Sea, by Philip Melling
- The Importance of Being Ernest, by Louis A. Renza

Resources

- Chronology of Ernest Hemingway's Life
- Works by Ernest Hemingway
- Bibliography
- About the Editor
- About The Paris Review
- Contributors
- Acknowledgments
- Index