

Fashion Innovators

Reviews

“Arranged alphabetically by best-known names, the entries present basic information on individuals connected with the fashion industry, including designers, models, publishers, and executives (from Erte to Tyra Banks). Each entry begins with basic information, such as birth and death dates and places, primary field of expertise (i.e., model, publisher), and group (company) affiliation. The main text of each entry includes a brief introduction, followed by discussions of their early lives, life’s work and personal lives, and a brief bibliography. At the end of volume two is a fashion timeline of milestones (beginning in 1940), a listing and description of various fashion awards, and indexes.”
