

Critical Insights: A Streetcar Named Desire

Table of Contents

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, by Tennessee Williams

- About This Volume, by Brenda Murphy

The Play and Author

- On A Streetcar Named Desire, by Brenda Murphy
- Biography of Tennessee Williams, by Robert J. Forman
- The Paris Review Perspective, by Catherine Steindler

Critical Contexts

- World War II, Sex, and Displacement in A Streetcar Named Desire, by Camille-Yvette Welsch
- Uncommon Tragic Protagonists: Blanche DuBois and Willy Loman, by Kenneth Elliott
- A Room That I Thought Was Empty: The Representation of Repression in A Streetcar Named Desire, by Neil Heims
- A Streetcar Named Desire: A Consideration of Select Criticism, by Janyce Marson

Critical Readings

- Desire, Death, and Laughter: Tragicomic Dramaturgy in A Streetcar Named Desire, by Verna Foster
- Tragedy as Habit: A Streetcar Named Desire, by Britton J. Harwood
- "Stanley Made Love to Her!—by Force!" Blanche and the Evolution of a Rape, by John S. Bak
- No Past to Think In: Who Wins in A Streetcar Named Desire?, by Dan Isaac
- Is There a Gay Man in This Text? Subverting the Closet in A Streetcar Named Desire, by Dean Shackelford
- A Streetcar Named Desire: Spatial Violation and Sexual Violence, by Anne Fleche
- The Artful Rerouting of A Streetcar Named Desire, by Linda Costanzo Cahir
- Stanley Kowalski's Not So Secret Sorrow: Queering, De-Queering, and Re-Queering A Streetcar Named Desire as Drama, Script, Film, and Opera, by Keith Dorwick
- "Tiger—Tiger!" Blanche's Rape on Screen, by Nancy M. Tischler

Resources

- Chronology of Tennessee Williams's Life
- Works by Tennessee Williams
- Bibliography
- About the Editor
- About The Paris Review
- Contributors
- Acknowledgments
- Index